Please note, we have different levels of scholarship and limited funds. We purposely have keep OUSA fees as low as possible to allow more opportunity to play for all, so that limits our in house scholarships to one per team. Some parents and business donate funds to sponsor players, and we allow those parents to be specific on who or which team they are helping. We are looking for others to sponsor teams and players, so we encourage you to be proactive and help us seek out sponsors and additional funding. By filling out this application, is no means a guarantee of funds.

Players who receive assistance with fees will be expected to participate with team at all events possible, practice, games, tournaments are all mandatory events and players are expected to compete with team for the FULL SEASON for that particular age group (Fall only for older players). Players who quit, decided they know longer want to play, play other brand of soccer before the club team will be ask to return all scholarship funds, it is not far to the other players, their parents, the coaches and staff to have players who do not participate in the program to their fullest.

Players and parents of players who receive assistance are expected to give back to the club in fundraising, events, field work, the referee program and other opportunities.

Scholarships do not include uniforms, tournament fees, jackets, and other gear including shoes, cleats, guards or pads. Basic uniform fee is $100.00.
